About Us

To unlock the true potential of e-learning to train successful employees, it needs to be people-centered. It has to be rooted in the day-to-day lives of people within an organization who are learning and growing as individuals, while also supporting them and making them feel valued. During the Pandemic situation, Sreepathy Institute of Management and Technology – SIMAT, Vavanoor (Pattambi) Palakkad had opened it's window for exploring new avenues of knowledge delivery.
