

REPORT OF THE 'AWARENESS CLASS' -BY SRI .SUNNY CHACKO C.I OF POLICE, PATTAMBI, ON 13-02-2014

Sri sunny Chacko C.I of Police, was cordially invited to and welcomed at SIMAT for conducting a class on 'traffic awareness' as a part of SIMAT'S tradition in moulding not only successful engineers but also good human beings and citizens who, by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities towards themselves and others, proves to be real worth to the society.

The session started in the seminar hall at 2.30 PM with a full house that includes students who are using two wheelers and four wheelers (From all the departments) and our college bus drivers .Mr. Bibin Joy, Training & Placement officer, did the introduction followed by the welcome address by the principal Dr. S.P. Subramanian and then on the session was handed over to Sri. sunny Chacko.

Sri. sunny Chacko proved his expertise as a very natural speaker by his jovial and humorous approach, to get a reach to the wavelengths of the student audience. He made a very successful attempt to familiarise the police department to the audience and very clearly conveyed the message that the police department is no way the enemy of the society but stand solely for the protection of the rights and security of each and every citizen. The highlights of his speech were

- Best driving practices
- Defensive driving
- By obeying traffic rules -one not only avoid the risk to his/her very precious life, but also others.
- Public(Society) friendly police department
- Introduction to law and order
- Procedures followed by the police department in various accidents other law and order related issues
- The importance of help and support from public to the police department for maintaining law and order

The session was very interactive .Students got the chance to ask questions and clear their doubts about police department and various other traffic and motor vehicles rules and regulations

The class became very special by witnessing a former student teacher reunion .Sri Sunny Chacko ,during his college days in St. Aloysius college, Thrissur, was a student of Dr. George C.T, the present AS& H HOD of SIMAT. Both of them shared some good memories about each other to the audience.

The class came to an end by 3.40 PM with Dr. George giving the vote of thanks and principal presenting the memento, a humble token of gratitude from SIMAT to the guest

During the ‘high tea’ in the placement bureau after the class, Sri sunny Chacko conveyed his satisfaction about the event and extended his, and the police department’s lawful help to SIMAT, in any law and order related matters.

For Dept. of Training & Placements

Bibin Joy