

REPORT OF THE INDIAN NAVY CAMPUS RECRUITMENT ON 30-09-2014

It was indeed a proud moment for SIMAT, when we received a request from the Indian navy to host their pooled campus recruitment, under the UES(University Entry scheme).The recruitment was conducted on 30-09-2014 Tuesday.

Commander Santhosh.T.Pillai from the Southern naval command coordinated the event and Lt.Commander.Dilip kumar , Lt.Commander.Vidyasagar ,Lt.Kuljith Singh,(all from Southern naval command –Kochi) were the official test centre invigilators

The Navy team arrived at the campus around 10.00Am and was offered a courteous and warm welcome at the placement bureau by the Academic director Brahmadathan sir himself, accompanied by the Principal Dr.S.P. Subramanian.

186 candidates from the following institutions were assigned to the SIMAT centre

- 1)Sreepathy Institute of Management & Tech
- 2)Royal College of. Engg & Tech
- 3)Thejus Engg College
- 4)Jyothi Engg College
- 5)Al Ameen Engg College
- 6)Malabar College of Engg & Tech,

Out of them, 126 turned in.18 students from SIMAT from 20 registered were present. It was really appreciable that all the 18(16 boys +2 girls) were remarkably well groomed .The placement officer received a very good feedback from the Navy team for the same.

The recruitment process started with a presentation by the navy team(Lt.Kuljith Singh) about the Indian navy, in the Auditorium.

The following venues were used for the entire event

1) Auditorium

2)Seminar Hall

3)Conference Room

4)M.Tech Classroom

The Navy team conveyed their total satisfaction gratitude about the infrastructure and other facilities and also the wholehearted support by our faculties in verifying the certificates of the candidates and NSS members as registration, and venue coordinators.

It is a matter of immense pleasure to all the SIMAT family members knowing that our name is reaching beyond boundaries, so that people are coming asking for us and it is purely because of the top professionalism and high standards that every member exhibits in their every aspect.
