Teacher's day

'A good teacher is a master of simplification and an enemy of simplism' - Louis A Berman

Teacher's day (September 5th) was observed under the NSS by distributing greeting cards with sweets to all teachers of Sreepathy family. The program was organized under the leadership of Sachin M.K (S5 ME) and Athira P.H (S5 CSE), secretaries of NSS SIMAT. Posters with Teacher's day message were made and placed in each and every notice board. Our Principal, Dr. S.P Subramanian gave the Teacher's day message.

NACT Orientation

The NACT (NSS Activity Co-ordination Team) orientation program was conducted on 20th September under the guidance of NACT members LAKSHMA, VAISHAK and RAHUL (State level student trainers) for the S3 and S5 NSS volunteers. The program started at 10.00am with the NSS prayer and welcome speech by volunteer secretary ATHIRA P H (S5 CSE). The orientation was on many topics like leadership skill, time management, general topics like NSS history etc..... The first session was handled by RAHUL. In his class, he divided the members into ten groups. Each group was assigned with tasks like to find the group leader, group name and a group anthem. All groups performed well. Small refreshment was arranged at 11.30 AM by food and refreshment committee under Adithyan (S5 CSE).

In the next session each group was assigned a duty to perform different art forms like dance,song,mime,drama,tableau etc. The creative side of many students were showcased and the session helped them to overcome their stage fear. Lunch was arranged at college canteen at 1.30 PM for the whole team. A special thanks to our Principal for sponsoring the lunch.

After lunch there was a class about history of NSS by Vyshak NACT member. He explained about the organization structure of NSS starting from the level of Ministry of Youth to the NSS volunteer.

The final session was arranged by LAKSHMA, the winner of the best volunteer award of the state in the year 2014. She taught about her learning process and how various activities were executed under her. The session was very much inspiring for aspiring youth.

R.ABHIRAJ(S3 ME-A) and VINSHA (S3 ECE) were selected as the best volunteers and a gift arranged by S5 students was given by SarathSankar K.S. (NSS - P.O) and SreeshmaK. Assistant Prof. CSE dept.

The program came to an end at 4.00PM.

NSS DAY Celebration

Sep 24th is a very important day for NSS. It was on this day in the year 1969 a giant leap was taken by government of India aiming at developing student's personality through community service. NSS was launched at 37 universities in all states. The scheme has been extended to all states and universities in the country, and also to +2-level institutes in many states.

Our Celebration began with flag hoisting ceremony by NSS P.O followed by NSS prayer. NSS volunteer Ram Mohan (S5 EEE) gave pledge to all students. Abhiraj (S3ME) spoke about the importance of NSS, duties, motto, need and value. A planning workshop was conducted under NSS P.O and many ideas were put forth by the NSS TEAM. It was decided to prepare an academic calendar with activity details of NSS for the coming year. We thank Sreeshma - Assistant professor CSE for her full hearted support and presence at the event.
