National Science Day Celebrations 2019 Inauguration

Supported by Kerala State Council for Science, Technology & Environment (KSCSTE)

“Communicating Science for All”

National Science Day is celebrated in India on 28 February each year to mark the discovery of the Raman effect by Indian physicist Sir C V Raman on 28 February 1928. Two week long National Science Day Celebrations at Sreepathy Institute of Management And Technology was inaugurated on 16th February 2019. The inaugural function started with a prayer followed by a welcome address delivered by Mr. Arun K A (NSS P.O, SIMAT). Prof. (Dr.) K K Babu (Director, SIMAT) inaugurated the National Science Day Celebrations 2019. Mr. Sarath Shankar K S (AP - ME), Mr. Janardhanan M K (Administrator, SIMAT) and Mr. Hithes P (NSD'19 Coordinator) felicitated the event. Several events including workshops, exhibitions, video shows and seminars are scheduled as a part of National Science Day Celebrations in SIMAT.
